

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to
air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election
is a clear example
of the dangers of
media consolidation.
If there exists any way to force equal
time, or to stop
this event in lack thereof, legal action should be taken. This is an attempt at obvious
manipulation of the public by a large
corporation bent on keeping media
monopolies and huge
tax breaks,
notprotecting the public interest.

Sinclair uses the
public airwaves free
of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. You are the Guardian of the
the airways and the public interest, I
charge you (as a
supporting taxpayer)
to serve those that
pay your salaries,
the taxpayers, and
stop this matter.

Sinclair's actions
show why we need to strengthen media
ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license
renewal process
needs to involve
more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
